NIE Teacher FAQ 2020-2021

Q. Is this REALLY free?

A. Up to 15 copies of The Journal Gazette per day are available at no charge to schools in Allen County. Currently programs are delivered to your school free of charge, because we have local businesses and organizations that underwrite the cost of your delivery. We also acquire funding through our own fundraising efforts.

Q. How many papers can I get?

A. We have a minimum order of five (5) papers, per program, per day. We have a maximum of 15 daily newspapers. Special programs are currently unrestricted (ex: Red Ribbon, Black History etc).

Q. What if I need more than 15 newspapers?

A. You may increase the amount of newspapers you receive at the educational rate of only $0.35 per copy. Contact NIE for more details.

Q. What if my school is located outside of Allen County?

A. If your school is located outside of Allen County you may still receive newspapers delivered at the educational rate of only $0.35 per copy. Contact NIE for more details.

Q. Can colleges also receive the newspaper?

A. Yes, any college within our delivery area (this includes within Allen County and outside Allen County) may receive the newspaper at an educational rate of only $0.35 per copy. Contact NIE for more details.

Q. Why do I have to get the newspaper when all I want is the supplement?

A. The two main program goals of NIE are 1) to encourage and promote literacy and recreational reading in a fun and useful manner and 2) to introduce the newspaper into the classroom as a teaching tool and living textbook.

To ensure that our program goals are being met, the Alliance for Audited Media mandates that all NIE materials be delivered with a copy of the newspaper. Not to mention that many of our supplements require the use of the newspaper to complete the activities found inside!!

Q. What is this affidavit I received in the mail?

A. This affidavit is simply a form that we must provide the Audit Bureau of Circulation. It verifies that you ordered the newspapers, received the newspapers and used them in your classroom. If you did not receive the papers that were ordered, simply write "did not receive" anywhere on the form and return it to us. This affidavit serves as your payment and may be returned to us by mail or fax.
